

DELPHIAN record launch

Mark O'Keeffe

Glasgow University Memorial Chapel

6pm Monday 23 April, 2007

FREE ENTRY

Mark will perform forty minutes of music from the disc after which wine will be served whilst Mark signs copies of his debut disc.

'astonishing ... the boundaries of trumpet playing and sound exploitation were driven even farther forward. Mark O'Keeffe's brilliant trumpet playing touched on the territory where the distinctions between experimental jazz and classical music no longer have any meaning.'
— The Herald

KNIGHT ERRANT

In medieval times a knight errant would wander the land in search of adventures and noble exploits. Here, Mark O'Keeffe takes a journey around the virtuoso repertory for modern trumpet, including several self-commissioned works, and wins his spurs in this stunning debut recital.
